

Carlos Zarlenga
Chief Operating Officer
North America

Carlos Zarlenga was appointed Chief Operating Officer for North America and a member of Stellantis' Top Executive Team on February 1, 2024.

A seasoned leader, Carlos has a deep understanding of the automotive industry with a strong background in finance and substantial global experience, including in the U.S., Asia Pacific, Latin America, and the Europe, Middle East and Africa regions.

From September 2022, Carlos served as President of Stellantis México, where he led a year-over-year improvement in sales performance, market share and adjusted operating income (AOI), resulting in record profits for the Mexican operation.

Before joining Stellantis, Carlos served in multiple leadership roles over 10 years with General Motors, including as President and CEO of GM South America. He was also the Chief Financial Officer, Consumer & Industrial for the Europe, Middle East and Africa region at General Electric, following leadership roles in supply chain and finance at the company.

Carlos has served on the Board of Directors of Amcham Brazil and the Americas Society/Council of the Americas.

He has a degree in economics from the University of Belgrano in Buenos Aires, Argentina.
